ABOUT LITERACY AND YOU

To better support our volunteers, all potential volunteers are expected to attend a 15 hour volunteer tutor training opportunity. Will you be able to participate in training? Yes No

What are your goals and expectations volunteering as an adult literacy tutor?

What does adult literacy mean to you? Please give your own definition.

What personal qualities, experiences and/or skills do you have that would help you in your role as a tutor?

What do you think are some of the challenges experienced by an adult learner?

You may be working with Learners from backgrounds, experiences and abilities that may be different from your own. How do you feel about that? What challenges may arise? How will you approach these situations?

Do you have any preferences with respect to your learner (gender, age, literacy level)?

How did you hear about the Learning Centre? _____

Please note that all volunteers will be asked to complete a vulnerable sectors check before they start volunteering.

By submitting this volunteer questionnaire, I assert that the information provided is accurate to the best of my knowledge.

I understand that the completion of the volunteer questionnaire does not guarantee acceptance as a volunteer tutor at Alexandra Park Neighbourhood Learning Centre and that Alexandra Park Neighbourhood Learning Centre is under no obligation to accept me as a volunteer.

CONFIDENTIALITY

During and after my time as a Volunteer Adult Literacy Tutor at Alexandra Park Neighbourhood Learning Centre, I hereby agree to respect the privacy of everyone involved with the organization. I will keep all information about participants confidential and not discuss information with anyone except program staff.
